

Curriculum Plan		Subject	Unit 1D: The Interregnum, 1649-1660	Year	12
		W/C 8th June	W/C 15 th June	W/C 22 nd June
Retrieval Focus How we will help you to recall previously learnt knowledge		There will be a '5 Minutes On...- Settlement' audio file available for you on G Drive to listen to to recap key issues from the Settlement period. This will transition you into this new piece of Y13 work well.	The focus of your work for this week will be around feedback and improvement from assessment week.	Embedded into starter activities and key points throughout the lesson and resources. '5 Minutes On...' audio files also available on every topic for you to recap key points if you wish.
New Learning	Focus	Introduction to Y13 - key focus, concepts etc. The Rump Parliament - introducing this new Interregnum Parliament and the concepts behind this new period.	You will be e-mailed a copy of your marked answers on a word document alongside a feedback booklet containing markschemes, personal feedback, model answers and improvement suggestions.	The failure of the Rump and key historiography
	What you will be learning about this week	How the multiple kingdoms were ruled without a monarch, the idea of a Commonwealth and the difficult position the Rump found itself in.	The expectation this week is that you use all of the above to improve your work. How you do this is up to you. You could;	Reasons behind the failure of the Rump Parliament including its membership and internal and external challenges it faced. Explanation of a key study of the membership of the Rump by Underdown.
	How we will help recap things you've learned in the past that will help with this topic	Your '5 Minutes On - Settlement' audio file will highlight relevant information that will support you in learning this new information. In addition, the materials used this week will emphasise past events, precedents and people that feature relevantly in this weeks lesson.	1. Use a different colour pen or text to elaborate on your answers and make corrections.	Starter on the links to the Consolidation of the Republic which you did w/c 8 th June.
	How we will teach you the new knowledge or ideas	There is a '5 Minutes On...- Introduction to Y13' which you should listen to before you start the work on the Rump. This will flag up key issues and focus across Y13 as a whole and explain some of the findings in today's lesson. There is also a '5 Minutes On...- The Rump Parliament' audio for you to listen to before you begin the lesson which will introduce new content and explain areas you might find more complex.	2. You could do improvements on a separate piece of paper and number	There is a '5 Minutes On...the Rump Parliament' which you should listen to before you start this work on the Rump. This will flag up key issues and explain some of the findings in today's lesson. We will also look at analysis of the Rump membership and a leading piece of Historiography on the Rump.

	Activities that will help you learn and practice what you've been taught	After you have completed the work, there will be a SHMW quiz for you to complete based on the new content covered.	them to link back to your essay. Please submit improvements to me via email and, MOST IMPORTANTLY , ask for help if you need it.	After you have completed the work, there will be a SHMW quiz for you to complete based on the new content covered.
	What you can do if you're stuck	Pages 129-135 of your A2 textbook cover this section of the course. The British Civil Wars Project website is an excellent resource and this link will take you to a useful section on the Rump - http://bcw-project.org/church-and-state/the-commonwealth/rump-parliament Friday 9am-11am I am available to answer any questions via email.	Please ask for help - email me and let me know what you are finding challenging. During our normal lesson time	Pages 137-141 of your A2 textbook cover this section of the course. Friday 9am-11am I am available to answer any questions via email.
Checking in How we will check in with you to support you with your remote learning		During our normal lesson time on a Friday P1 and P2 (9-11) I will be available to answer your questions via email. You are obviously more than welcome to email me questions after this point but, during these hours, I will be able to respond to you straight away.	on a Friday P1 and P2 (9-11) I will be available to answer your questions via email. You are obviously more than welcome to email me questions after this point but, during these hours, I will	During our normal lesson time on a Friday P1 and P2 (9-11) I will be available to answer your questions via email. You are obviously more than welcome to email me questions after this point but, during these hours, I will be able to respond to you straight away.
Tutorial Focus		https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fdDKO-Klflo Watch this clip from 20 minutes to gain an overview of key events coming up.	be able to respond to you straight away.	https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=AoxUS9ttmCo This short clip focuses on Cromwell's rise to power and his focus on Godly government. This will give you a helpful insight into what is coming up.

		W/C 29 th June	W/C 6 th July	W/C 13 th July
Retrieval Focus How we will help you to recall previously learnt knowledge		Embedded into starter activities and key points throughout the lesson and resources. '5 Minutes On...' audio files also available on every topic for you to recap key points if you wish.	Embedded into starter activities and key points throughout the lesson and resources. '5 Minutes On...' audio files also available on every topic for you to recap key points if you wish.	Embedded into starter activities and key points throughout the lesson and resources. '5 Minutes On...' audio files also available on every topic for you to recap key points if you wish.
New Learning	Focus	The Nominated Assembly	Cromwell as Lord Protector	The Rule of the Major-Generals
	What you will be learning about this week	The second Parliament of the Interregnum, the Nominated Assembly. How and why it was constructed, successes and failures.	Why and how Cromwell became 'King in all but name' by taking the title of Lord Protector in December 1653. The problems he encountered in the First Protectorate in September 1654.	Essentially military rule in England. The Rule of the Major-Generals was enforced by Cromwell and is the key example of him being seen as a military dictator. Successes and failures of this period.
	How we will help recap things you've learned in the past that will help with this topic	Emphasis on key words and links back to the intentions of the Republic. Your '5 Minutes On...' audios are always helpful in highlighting links between events.	Explanation of why Cromwell was disappointed with the Rump and felt things had to change. Your '5 Minutes On...' audios are always helpful in highlighting links between events.	Emphasis on how the failure of the Western Design spurred Cromwell into taking this drastic action. Reflection on Cromwell's character and providence.

	How we will teach you the new knowledge or ideas	There is a '5 Minutes On...the Nominated Assembly' which you should listen to before you start this work. This will flag up key issues and explain some of the findings in today's lesson.	There is a '5 Minutes On...Cromwell as Lord Protector' which you should listen to before you start this work.. This will flag up key issues and explain some of the findings in today's lesson.	There is a '5 Minutes On...the Rule of the Major Generals' which you should listen to before you start this work on the Rump. This will flag up key issues and explain some of the findings in today's lesson.
	Activities that will help you learn and practice what you've been taught	After you have completed the work, there will be a SHMW quiz for you to complete based on the new content covered.	After you have completed the work, there will be a SHMW quiz for you to complete based on the new content covered.	After you have completed the work, there will be a SHMW quiz for you to complete based on the new content covered.
	What you can do if you're stuck	Pages 141-144 of your A2 textbook cover this section of the course. Friday 9am-11am I am available to answer any questions via email.	Pages 145-147 of your A2 textbook cover this section of the course. Friday 9am-11am I am available to answer any questions via email.	Pages 147-149 of your A2 textbook cover this section of the course. Friday 9am-11am I am available to answer any questions via email.
Checking in	How we will check in with you to support you with your remote learning	During our normal lesson time on a Friday P1 and P2 (9-11) I will be available to answer your questions via email. You are obviously more than welcome to email me questions after this point but, during these hours, I will be able to respond to you straight away.	During our normal lesson time on a Friday P1 and P2 (9-11) I will be available to answer your questions via email. You are obviously more than welcome to email me questions after this point but, during these hours, I will be able to respond to you straight away.	During our normal lesson time on a Friday P1 and P2 (9-11) I will be available to answer your questions via email. You are obviously more than welcome to email me questions after this point but, during these hours, I will be able to respond to you straight away.
Tutorial Focus		https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=OKhWqImZuII - short clip on Oliver Cromwell. Good for an overview of the Rump and introduction to Cromwell as Lord Protector. Take note of the order of events and the motives behind Cromwell's actions.	https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RB_A27-mXpW8 Was Cromwell 'King in all but name'?	A commonly asked question is 'Was Cromwell a Hero or a Villain?' watch these clips to begin thinking about different views on this. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=MIV7XVNH2Vw https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=GjrfTyGDlw4

			What do you think?
--	--	--	--------------------